

ORGANIZATION	DESCRIPTION	WEBSITE	EMAIL	PHONE NUMBER	DIRECTOR/CONTACT	BINGO FACT
America's Hometown Band	The AHB, formally the Muncie Municipal Band, has evolved as a blend of the Ball State Summer Band (1988), The American Fed. of Musicians(1902) and Jazz Bands and small ensembles playing music by JP Sousa, LeRoy Anderson, Freddie Mercury, Stan Kenton, Holst, and other classic and popular composers; many of whom have a Ball State/IN connection. Their repertoire takes them to city parks, fairs, festivals, schools, corporate and patriotic celebrations, churches, health care units, ice cream socials, and community concert venues including our home hall, THE EMENS.	www.ambometownband.org	businessoffice@ambometownband.org	(765) 289-2041	Roger McConnell & Kathy Huggler/Music Director and Vice President for Information	This is the oldest, continual performing music organization in our community. Musicians have degrees from BSU, IU, ISU, Butler, Purdue, DePauw, Michigan State, Northwestern, Michigan, Ohio State, Duke, and Florida State, MCS and IN Academy.
Amy Kay Photography Newborn Portraiture and Fur in Focus Pet Portraits	Amy operates a full service photography studio and specializes in creating wall art and heirloom albums for her clients.	www.amykayphotos.com	amykayphotos@gmail.com	(765) 273-4955	Amy Shears, Owner	Amy plans a custom session for each client. She works with her clients to create portraits that not only show beauty but personality.
Arnold Violin Studio	Tiffany Janney Arnold is a Suzuki-certified violin teacher who has completed additional training in Music Mind Games. She is a member of the Muncie Symphony Orchestra and performs with other area orchestras. She holds a Bachelor of Music in Violin Performance from the Oberlin Conservatory of Music and a Bachelor of Arts in Art History from Oberlin College.	www.Facebook.com/arnoldviolinstudio	tiffanyarnold@gmail.com	(765) 702-3967	Tiffany Arnold, Director	Study may begin as early as age 3, but it's never too late to begin. No special talent is needed, but simply a desire to learn.
Ball State University Department of Theatre and Dance	The Department of Theatre and Dance is an undergraduate-only program with over 500 majors. For 2018-19, the department will 21 productions performed in University Theatre, Strother Theatre, Cave Theatre, Korsgaard Dance Studio, and for the first time ever, Emens Auditorium in collaboration with the School of Music.	www.bsu.edu/theatre	srienkins@bsu.edu	(765) 285-8749	Sarah Jenkins, Managing Director	There are currently 3 graduates performing on Broadway, but this number can change depending on when shows open and close.
Ball State University School of Art	The School of Art inspires and educates artists, designers, scholars, and teachers. The School of Art offers four-year professional degree concentrations in animation, ceramics, drawing, glass, metals, painting, photography and intermedia art, printmaking, sculpture, and visual communication (graphic design), as well as a Bachelor of Arts (BA) or Bachelor of Science (BS) degree with licensure in Art Education.	www.bsu.edu/art	art@bsu.edu	(765) 285-5838	Andy Beane, Associate Director	We offer many different workshops and events open to the public.
Ball State University Singers	The Ball State University Singers, known as Indiana's Official Goodwill Ambassadors are in the 55th year of existence. Over the years, the University Singers have been entertaining audiences through their songs of Faith, Hope, Laughter, and Love. Their performances have touched the lives of audience members, both young and old.	www.ballstateuniversitiesingers.org/	ballstateuniversitiesingers@gmail.com	(574) 536-9154	Eryn Calfee, Outreach Head	This past summer, we traveled to London, England on a performance tour!
Ball State University School of Music	Comprised of nearly 500 students, the Ball State University School of Music presents over 300 performances each year and live streams many of its large ensemble and faculty artist concerts. Piano lessons are offered to community members through the Piano Pedagogy program and Sensory Friendly concerts are presented annually.	www.bsu.edu/music	music@bsu.edu	(765) 285-5400	Ryan Hourigan, Director	This school hosts instrument-specific "Feature Days" that are free and open to student and amateur musicians who share a love of music.
Book Arts Collaborative	Book Arts Collaborative is a community letterpress and hand-sewn book bindery located in the Madjax Building in downtown Muncie. We offer community workshops in printing and book-binding as well as paper marbling throughout the year. We also work with community groups to create events and items. Check our events page for more information: bookartscollaborative.com/events	www.bookartscollaborative.com	rai@bsu.edu	(765) 744-1709	Rai Peterson, Associate Professor of English (BSU)	We publish an artist's book every year, and it usually sells out within hours.
The Charles W. Brown Planetarium, Ball State University	The Brown Planetarium is an immersive theater where state-of-the-art technology transforms the dome into a simulation of the sky. Open for free educational programs, the planetarium reflects Ball State's commitment to service through educational engagement with the community. Visit bsu.edu/planetarium for more information.	www.bsu.edu/planetarium	planetarium@bsu.edu	(765) 285-8963	Dayna Thompson, Assistant Planetarium Director	We hosts art and music performances and have enjoyed performances by the BSU Chamber Choir, Muncie Symphony Orchestra, and more.
Cornerstone Center for the Arts	Cornerstone is a non profit organization focused on providing quality and affordable art education programs. Our mission is to engage and enrich our community by providing opportunities for creative expression, educational programming, and events in a historic setting. Cornerstone works collectively with others and welcomes over 100,000 to our building each year.	www.cornerstonearts.org	mclearly@cornerstonearts.org	(765) 281-9503	Marilyn Cleary, Executive Director	All of our educational programs are subsidized with additional funding provided for scholarships to adults and children.
Cuplets	Cuplets is free monthly social event for open mic live poetry reading at The Cup in The Village from 6-8p on the 4th Sunday. Join us as we pair flow with joe, rhythm and brews, beats and beans, and many a steamed stanza! Listeners are always welcome, or come read!	https://www.facebook.com/group/1596819023887658/	MissMoth@gmail.com	(765) 744-9106	Moth Danner, Host	We are not curated, not a slam, everyone can read! If it's poetry to you, it's poetry at...!

David Owsley Museum of Art	The David Owsley Museum of Art at Ball State University houses a world art collection with over 11,000 works from Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, Europe, and the Americas. DOMA cultivates lifelong learning and recreation in the visual arts through exciting interdisciplinary art exhibitions with engaging displays of the permanent collection in an educational environment that serves both the university and the East Central Indiana region.	www.bs.edu/doma	artmuseum@bs.edu	(765) 285-3372	Tania Said, Director of Education	You can travel the world by enjoying over 1,000 works of art!
Delaware County Extension Chorus	The Delaware County Extension Chorus is a small part of the Melody Makers of Indiana comprised of over 400 ladies of all ages representing 20 counties. The repertoire is high school/college level music for women. We perform locally and with the state chorus. The Delaware chorus rehearses on Thursday evenings at St. Paul's UMC.	www.melodymakersofindiana.com	kbartling@yahoo.com	(765) 760-0376	Karen Bartling, Director	We are part of a women's state choral organization that has been in existence over eight decades.
Do For Three	Do For Three is a hip hop collective consisting of two artists, LJ & Chris Mack. Through highly interactive live performances and heartfelt recordings, the artists give faith, hope, and love (the three) to foster sincere dialogue as the listener figures out their purpose in life.	www.liforthree.com	lherbert3@gmail.com	(317) 600-1350	LJ Herbert, Artist	The artists knew each other for exactly three years before becoming official business partners.
Dr. Galit's Piano Studio	Dr. Galit's Piano Studio provides high-level piano instruction to serious students who want to play piano successfully and excel in artistry and performance. Dr. Galit's students successfully perform recitals and competitions across Indiana.	www.galitpiano.com	galit.piano@gmail.com	(513) 213-3639	Galit Gertsenzon, Owner	This studio is located in Yorktown, Indiana, just minutes from Muncie, IN and close to Anderson, New Castle, Middletown, Daleville, and surrounding towns.
Dr. Joe and Alice Rinard Orchid Greenhouse	The Rinard Orchid Greenhouse contains the largest university-based orchid collection in the United States. It is a colorful living museum for education and conservation of orchid species. Students, faculty, schools, community, and visitors enjoy orchids, edible tropical plants, poison arrow frogs, birds and more, on display in a tropical environment.	www.bs.edu/orchids	cleblanc@bs.edu	(765) 285-8839	Cheryl LeBlanc, Curator	We have the largest university-based orchid collection in the United States. Our collection has been at BSU for 47 years (1971).
Experience Muncie	Media company focused on connecting Muncie residents to the community's amenities. Feature things to do, area newsmakers, local business profiles. Consistently promote arts and culture events in the area. Find us Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram.	www.instagram.com/experiencemuncie	experiencemuncie@gmail.com	(765) 705-6082	Cheryl Lindus, Founder	We were founded in May of this year and appear to be a direct descendant of the Cookie Monster. We love cookies!
Gordy Fine Art & Framing Company	Gordy Fine Art and Framing Company offers expert design for framing works of art and treasured family possessions. Gordy's can fix broken frames as well as make original hand-carved and gilded frames. In our shop, cards, jewelry, journals, paintings, pottery, and prints made by Indiana artists are available for sale.	www.gordyframing.com	barbara@gordyframing.com	(765) 284-8422	Barbara Schafer, Owner	We are asked to help solve unusual problems. Recently, we opened a display box containing a very large taxidermy tarantula. We got the creepy crawlies.
Henna By Hallie	Henna is a temporary "tattoo" that stains the skin and lasts 2-3 weeks. All henna ingredients are natural and homemade.	www.facebook.com/hennabyhallie	halliegick@yahoo.com	(765) 717-1528	Hallie Gick, Henna Artist	I have been doing this work for 6 years and love doing it as much as people love receiving the designs.
Indiana Public Radio & WIPB TV	We are your public broadcasting stations, located on the Ball State University campus. We provide arts programming - local and national - on both stations.	www.indianapublicradio.org	mkinsey@bs.edu	(765) 285-5887	Michelle Kinsey, Community Engagement Coordinator	We provide thousands of hours of arts programming each year!
John R. Emens College Community Auditorium	Emens Auditorium presents a diverse array of guest artists, productions, and celebrities of national and international prominence representing various genres of live performance from traditional to the innovative. This 3,309-seat venue was constructed in 1964 and has been host to legendary performances ranging from President Ford, David Letterman, Louis Armstrong, and Third Eye Blind.	www.bs.edu/emens	emens@bs.edu	(765) 285-1539	Kristi Chambers, Assistant Director of Marketing and Communications
Masterworks Chorale	Currently celebrating its 41st season, Masterworks Chorale is a non-profit auditioned and professionally directed community choir averaging seventy singers, a twelve member board, and four person staff. Masterworks exists to enrich our community with excellent cultural experiences through promotion and live performance of fine choral music, offering four regular concerts each year.	www.munciemasterworks.org	info@munciemasterworks.org	(765) 286-5347 ext. 22	Andy Saxon, Administrative Assistant	We have commissioned and premiered two original choral works from local composers, nearly 30 years apart.
Minnetrista	Located along historic White River, Minnetrista includes 40 acres of beautiful gardens and grounds, a modern museum facility, a historic home, Nature Area, numerous sculptures, and a portion of the White River Greenway. Minnetrista serves East Central Indiana with dynamic community activities and exhibits that honor and reflect its natural and cultural heritage.	www.minnetrista.net	kmaggart@minnetrista.net	(765) 282-4848	Katy Maggart, Marketing Manager	Our name means 'gathering place by the water' and takes its name from the original F. C. Ball home that once stood at the location of our Center Building.
Muncie Arts & Culture Council	We celebrate and support Arts & Culture in Muncie, Indiana. MACC is the official 'Arts Partner' for the City of Muncie. The Muncie Arts and Culture Council is the designated Arts Partner for the City of Muncie. As Arts Partner, we assist with municipal initiatives where art integration can benefit Economic Development and Quality of Place. As an arts alliance, we build community among artists and arts organizations and serve as a resource for professional growth and opportunity.	www.munciearts.org	info@munciearts.org	(765) 215-1961	Braydee Euliss, Executive Director	We are the official Arts Partner for the City of Muncie.

Muncie Ballet Studio	Muncie Ballet encourages the appreciation of classical music and dance to children through performances and class instruction.	www.MuncieBallet.org	MuncieBallet@gmail.com	(765) 216-5470	Lisa Love, director	We have provided matinees for school children from the Central Indiana area for the past 15 years. Over 18,000 school children have been introduced to a full-length ballet through our performances
Muncie Civic Theatre	Muncie Community Theatre was founded in 1931 by William H. Ball and is housed in the historic Boyce Block, the oldest city block in Muncie. Muncie Civic Theatre strives to provide high quality entertainment, education, and outreach for the whole community.	www.munciecivic.org	brittany@munciecivic.org	(765) 288-7529	Brittany Covert, Marketing Coordinator	The architect of this building wrote a letter to the Ball Brothers encouraging them to visit Muncie and build their new factory here.
Muncie Downtown Development	Muncie Downtown Development Partnership exists to create a downtown environment that results in sustainable economic and cultural growth. We are the Originals. The ones who work toward a better tomorrow today. We challenge the status quo to make today the "the good ole days." We live here, love here, play here, and learn here. So join us. Be part of the movement. DWNTWN The Original Muncie.	www.downtownmuncie.org	cheryl@downtownmuncie.org	(765) 282-7897	Cheryl Crowder, Events Director	For the first time in our 18 year history, every storefront on Walnut and Charles St. has an occupant and a plan!
Muncie Makers Market	Fresh homemade food, locally grown produce, plants, art, handmade crafts of all kinds, and live entertainment, all weekly from May-October at the Muncie Makers Market on Saturdays from 4-7p outside at Books & Brews on the White River in Muncie! Shop LOCAL!	https://www.facebook.com/group/1627047027524961/	missmoth@gmail.com	(765) 744-9106	Moth Danner, Market Master	If every family pledges $10/month to shop local, $48 goes back into the Muncie economy!
Muncie Map Co.	Cartography and graphic design gallery offering custom and historic maps, Muncie-centric items and more!	www.munciemap.com	munciemapro@gmail.com	(765) 273-8627	Andrew Shears, Owner	We were founded by a 2X Ball State alumnus and will soon be opening a retail shop in downtown Muncie
Muncie Public Library	Muncie Public Library provides accessible and innovative services responding to the reading, informational, educational, and enrichment needs of our community. MPL encourages local artists and art appreciation through programming and art display opportunities at all MPL branches.	www.munciepubliclibrary.org	sfisher@mupnl.org	(765) 741-7336	Susan Fisher, Public Relations Specialist	We partner with Cornerstone each month to host Bad Art Night. This event is fun, open to all, and awards prizes for the worst creations.
Muncie Symphony Orchestra	Your Muncie Symphony Orchestra is offering an exciting 70th season! Your concert experience will be enhanced by the entwining of art and music, from Moussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition to Movie Magic with John Williams, and special pieces created from local students, each concert provides the eyes and ears a taste of The Art of Music	www.MuncieSymphony.org	CBradshaw@MuncieSymphony.org	(765) 285-5531	Carol Bradshaw, Customer Relations and Marketing Manager	Our orchestra played its first concert with a professional soloist in April 1947 when it was known as the College Community Symphony Orchestra.
Muncie Three Trails Music Series	The Muncie Three Trails Music Series is dedicated to presenting critically acclaimed national recording artists in four free concerts at Canan Commons in the heart of downtown Muncie. The two goals of the Series are to enhance Muncie's Quality of Place and to promote Muncie's existing cultural attractions and amenities.	www.munciemusicseries.com	smzfoundation55@gmail.com	(317) 430-1452	Rick Zeigler, Founder/Organizer	We have had attendees from Ohio, Illinois, Michigan, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Canada
Theater-Masks.com and The North American Laboratory for the Performing Arts	Theater-Masks.com provides masks for performance and educational use to clients in 48 countries. The North American Laboratory for the Performing Arts is an incubator space for local, national and international artists to create new work, teach and learn from each other.	www.theater-masks.com	jonathan@theater-masks.com	(401) 954-1768	Jonathan Becker, Artistic Director, Owner, and Master Mask Maker	The studio spaces are in the former ceremonial hall of the KKK
Prism Project	The goal of the Prism Project is two fold. First, and foremost, it is a performing arts program for students with special needs. Second, it is a training ground for Ball State students who wish to work with children who have exceptionalities.	www.prismprojectbsu.org	bsuprismproject@gmail.com	(765) 285-8740	Ryan Hourigan, Amy Hourigan, and Michael Daehn, Founders	This organization is the longest self-sustaining immersive learning program at Ball State University.
Stitch 'n Bitch	Everyone is welcome at Stitch 'n Bitch! We gather together in creative fellowship and caffeine every Sunday at The Cup in The Village, starting at 3p. Some knit, some crochet, some do other art, and it's all a-okay. Folks come and go until closing, so grab a table if you're first!	https://www.facebook.com/group/14472977992921700/	Missmoth@gmail.com	(765) 744-9106	Moth Danner, Greeter	Groups like ours were formed in the USA as a WWII effort to support soldiers by making socks for them stateside!
Tribune Showprint/Kim Miller	We are a letterpress shop who specialize in printing posters, coasters, business cards, invitations, and decorative posters.	www.tribune-showprint.com	info@tribune-showprint.com	(317) 512-4045	Kimberly Miller, Owner	We are America's Oldest Continuously Operating Letterpress Shop, celebrating 140 years this year.
Village Green Records	The Village Green Records is a small independent Record store offering hand-picked music from nearly all genres and eras on new and used CD, Tape and VINYL.	www.instagram.com/villagegreen	villagegreenrecords@gmail.com	(847) 345-2199	Travis Harvey, Owner	We believe music is an integral, personal part of our lives and our handpicked selection is catered to help you reconnect to this essential part of your life.
YART	YART - a Yard Sale for Art held during ArtsWalk on the First Thursday of every May and October in Downtown Muncie	https://www.facebook.com/Muncie-YART-156725924394407/	missmoth@gmail.com	(765) 744-9106	Moth Danner, Director	We are a zero-budget, all-volunteer community event that began in Muncie and has now spread all over the country!
Youth Symphony Orchestras of East Central Indiana (YSOECI)	Founded in 1964, the Youth Symphony Orchestras of East Central Indiana bring together young musicians from Delaware and surrounding counties to provide weekly orchestral experiences specifically tailored for students ages 5 to 18.	www.ysoeci.com	tarnold@ysoeci.com	(765) 702-7529	Tiffany Arnold, Executive Director	We have 5 programs: Suzuki-Based Violin Class for 5- and 6-year-olds, Prelude Orchestra, Overture Strings, Intermezzo Orchestra, and Youth Symphony.